

Instructions for Iranian Citizens to Apply for F or M Visa

1. In principle, an official Invitation Letter (TE) or Verification Letter of Invitation is required, which should be provided by the inviter in China.

2. Invitation Letter (TE) or Verification Letter of Invitation may be exempted when the following 5 documents are provided:

(1) Invitation letter issued by the inviter in China, which should be printed in Chinese, and contain the elements as listed below:

- Information of the invitee: including full name, gender, date of birth, passport number.

- Information of the visit: including purpose of visit, date of arrival to and departure from China, place of visit, itinerary and who will pay for travel.

- Information of the inviter: name, address, contact number, signature and official seal of the inviter/inviting party.

- The inviter should declare in invitation letter that the visa applicant shall abide by Chinese laws and regulations and depart from China within validity of period of stay as shown on visa.

(2) Copy of one of the documents from the inviter: a. Business License. b. Certification of Organization Code. c. Certification of Tax Registration.

(3) Original certificate of bank deposit (no less than 5,000 USD), or assets certificate (no less than 10,000 USD) or original bank credit certificate. For the first two documents, extra 100 USD per day is required according to the itinerary of the visa applicant in China.

(4) Travel insurance.

(5) Confirmed round flight ticket.

Attention:

According to Exit and Entry Administration Law of the People's Republic of China, the inviter/inviting party is responsible for the authenticity of the content of the invitation letter.